Graduate Teaching Assistants must be registered as full time graduate students and have a minimum of a recognized master's degree with relevant teaching experience and academic expertise. Under the supervision of, and in close collaboration with the UBC Ritsumeikan AEP Academic Director, duties include teaching, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, attending course meetings as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

Please note successful applicants will be required to complete a UBC Equity Office workshop prior to the start of their teaching appointment in the UBC-Rits Program. Further details will be provided to successful candidates.

Updated CV and cover letter can be sent as a pdf or word document to lled-posting.educ@ubc.ca. Please indicate in the subject area of the email, “LLED/RITS GTA” and indicate the course(s) that you are interested in teaching.

Application deadline is Friday, May 23rd 2014

Due to the number of applications we receive, we are unable to confirm receipt of submissions over the phone or by mail, nor can we provide the status of applicants except to those who are selected for an interview.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity and diversity within its community. We especially welcome applications from members of visible minority groups, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others with the skills and knowledge to engage productively with diverse communities. We encourage all qualified persons to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.
